

Leadzo

The AI-Powered Central Nervous System for Modern Businesses

The Problem

- Human Capacity Limits: Traditional calling and customer support are limited by the number of human agents, restricting scale.
- Delayed Lead Engagement: Managing leads from WhatsApp and other platforms requires manual intervention, causing delays and lost conversions.
- Tedious Follow-ups: Recurring tasks like monthly reminder calls (e.g., banks, insurance) are labor-intensive and require large teams.
- Complex Ad Campaigns: Running and optimizing campaigns on platforms like Instagram and Google require specialized knowledge and are highly complex.
- Difficult SEO: Traditional SEO is difficult, time-consuming, and
